

Whale Shark Word Search

LHQNVTQOTGAAGRL CARRCODE Ι GTLOAP KPRYXGYL H Z Y NYKB SG FLDF TGZ O D V ΥE LJLNESEZ I AΙ WZRH LCTSGSUNGJNDSS ZPUWMLTT TWHHKU K CGCSAISC XOAKLI 0 V 0 V I VIPAROUSNM TSAEWHSVKF Ι SHY FMTWT E T IHWIHUXO FHLOMEXWD TXAKAF WAUAPXTLQMGQMYC UGLGOSOWEYBKGMF UGDPEAUAOOHNIFN

Find the underlined word in the whale shark facts below:

- The whale shark is the LARGEST of all fish.
- The whale shark has a HUGE mouth, which can reach up to 4 feet (1.4 meters) across.
- It is a SHARK; it is not a whale.
- Food is strained from the water through its GILLS.
- It has 300 rows of tiny teeth, which many scientists believe are used to hold whatever is scooped into the MOUTH.
- The whale shark is OVOVIVIPAROUS, meaning that the embryo is formed within eggs retained in the mother's womb.
- It has gill RAKERS that are located at the rear of the mouth.
- 8. The SKIN of a whale shark can be as thick as 4 inches.
- The whale shark can be recognized by the two-toned pattern of light SPOTS on its dark back.
- It has a WHITE underside.